

December 5, 2018

Quorum: There was no quorum. Nine members were in attendance.

Communications:

A Local Agreement impasse arbitration award was received for the New Milford office in which the Arbitrator denied the NALC's position to include CCAs in the annual leave percentage computation.

Route inspections will take place in the following offices early in 2019: Cromwell, Jewett City and Norwich.

A note was received from recently retired Norwich carrier Mary Fontaine thanking President Daniels and all the union officials for all their hard work on the members' behalf over the years.

A note was received from Mike Maddalena, steward of the Southington and Plantsville offices informing President Daniels of his decision to resign from the position of steward. Mike thanked President Daniels and former Vice-President John Daniels for all their help and support and guidance over the years.

A note was received from Stacey Ross steward in Waterbury Main stating that she will be resigning as steward on January 1, 2019. Stacey thanked President Daniels for the opportunity to serve as steward.

Pete Scelfo, has retired both as a letter carrier and steward from the New London office.

President Daniels has appointed Charles Pendola to the New London office until we find someone in New London who is willing to do the steward's job.

New Business:

There is no penalty overtime from December 1st until December 28th.

Open Season for health plans enrollment ends December 10th. NALC Health Benefits information was discussed and made available for the members present.

Discussion was held on CCAs and "Stand By" time.

A discussion was held on working in the dark.

Question and Answer books on FERS and CSRS retirement were made available for members to take home.

Treasurer's Report was handed out to all in attendance.

The meeting then adjourned.